V. I. T. 20

The football system used this year was designed for speed. We had one of the three fastest backfields in the conference. With practically the same backfield returning next year the team could go undefeated. With only five returning lettermen and but three of these full time starters, this young team turned what was originally a building season into a winning season and left a real desire for football in many of the boys. I am proud to say I was the coach of this finest spirited, football team of my young coaching career.

ROW ONE: Roger Taylor, Kenny Williamson, Larry Wilson, Chris Heller, Dick Mowery, Joel Bates. ROW TWO: Frank Johns, Ronald Tompkins, Charles Lescallette, Larry Ault, Donnie France, Ted Reffett. ROW THREE: Richard Hall, Terry Pickle, Mr. Morelli, Larry Lowary, Mr. Zaborac, Larry Harper, Jack Walsh.

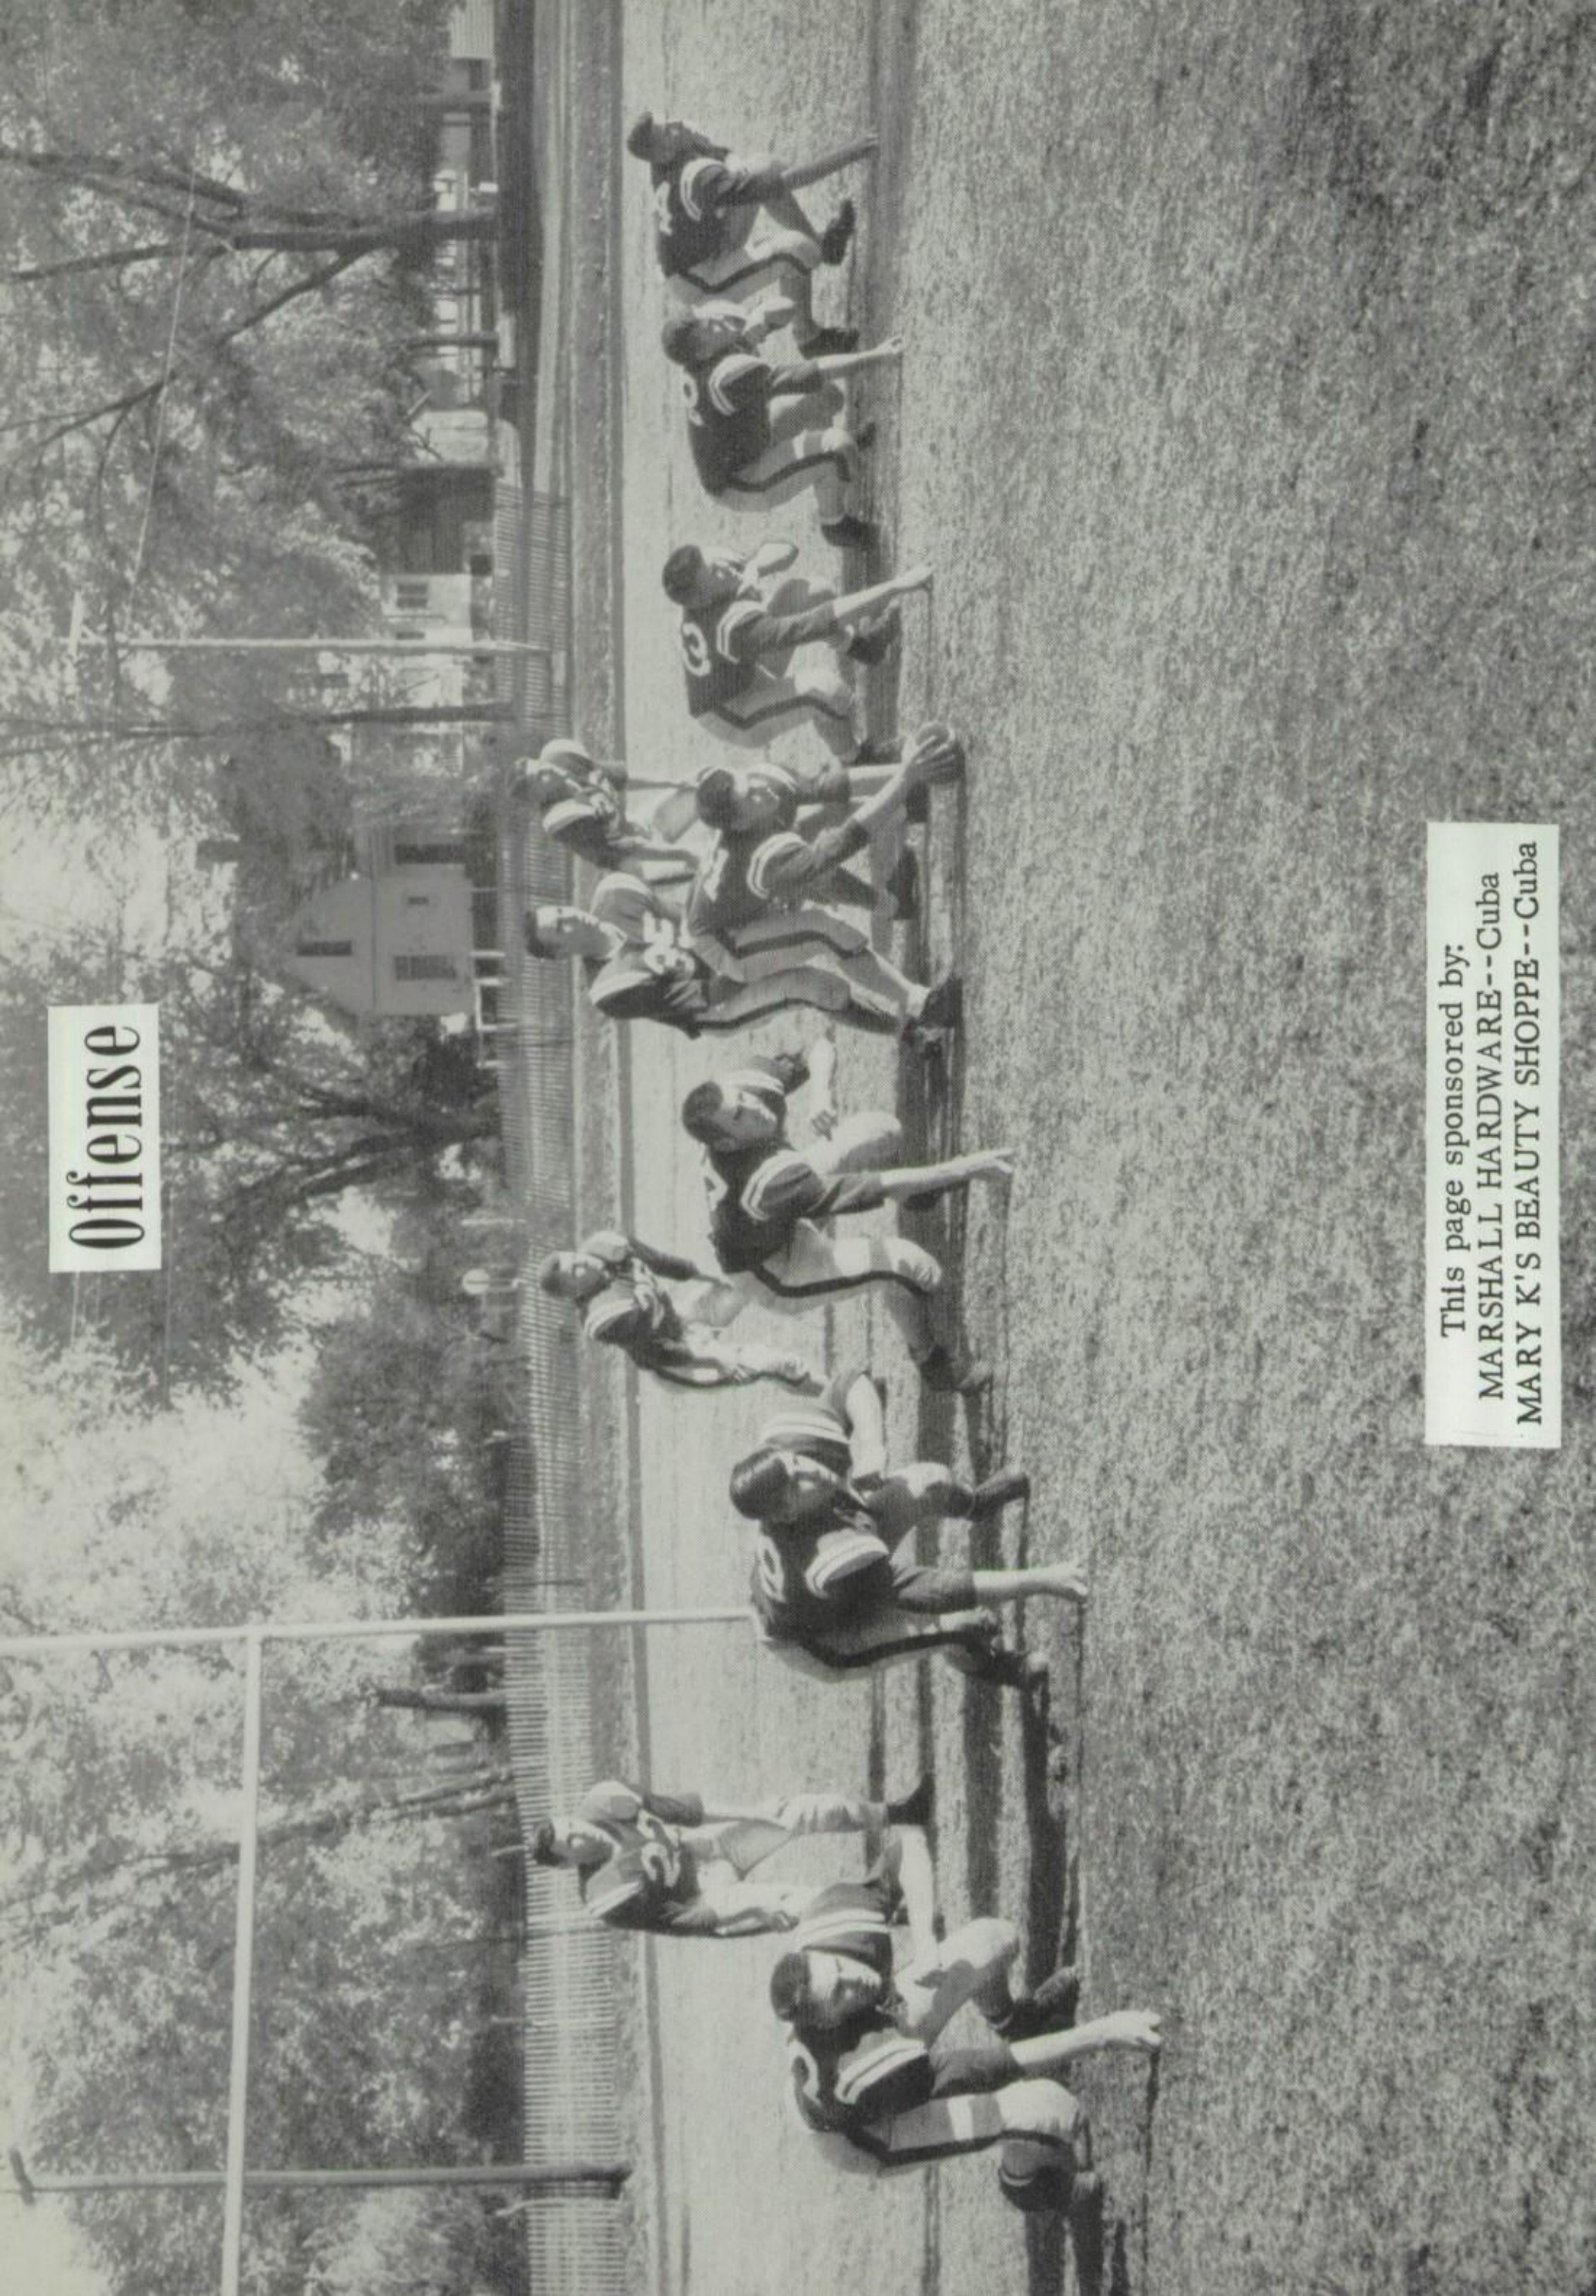

Even though the Frosh-Soph squad didn't win a game this past season, the work they did uncovered a lot of talent and should bring Cuba High fans to new high hopes for the future. This bunch of youngsters will be the backbone and body of a great team within the next two or three years and should provide a lot of thrills and excitement when they have had more experience.

The scores of their games are as follows:

Cuba	12	Macomb	19
Cuba	12	Havana	20
Cuba	21	Bushnell	27
Cuba	0	Farmington	34
Cuba	6	Valley	18

Class Will

We, "The Seniors of Cuba High", do bequeath:
To the junior class, graduation from Cuba High.
To the sophomores, a successful prom next year.
To the freshmen, the feeling of being almost upper classmen.

To the teachers, we leave our apologies for all wrongs done and our thanks for all services rendered.

I, Eddie Amsler, bequeath my driving to Freddie Kidd.

I, Keith Archdale, bequeath my name "Shag" to anybody who wants it.

I, Eldon Ault, bequeath my ability to some poor, unsuspecting freshman.

I, Maxine Beebe, bequeath Jack to anyone who thinks she can get him.

I, Louie Behymer, bequeath my little black "Chevy" to Vernie Beaty so he can take Libby out.

I, Marcia Bevard, bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to my sister, "Gig".

I, Beverly Cameron, bequeath my calmness at a basketball game to my sister, Linda.

I, Carol Carver, bequeath my four years attempt to get a certain senior boy to any junior girl who can get him.

I, Harold Cattron, bequeath my ability to loaf in Miss Tapper's class to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Jerry Churchill, bequeath my ability to have a few accidents now and then to Vernie Mitchell.

I, Nancy Clark, bequeath my cheerleading ability to my sister, Sally, in case she ever wants to be one.

I, Ronnie Clayberg, bequeath my desire to play football to all the boys who go out next year but most of all, Milt Murphy.

I, Dean Coulter, bequeath my black limousine to any underclassman who thinks he can hold her down.

I, Richard Deakin, bequeath my sideburns to Joe Graham.

I, Joan Deford, bequeath a certain Canton boy to anyone who thinks she can get him.

I, Curtis Foster, bequeath my false teeth to anyone who needs them.

I, Nancy Gillespie, bequeath my blonde hair to anyone who knows how to get it.

I, Donna Hackett, bequeath my ability to go with boys who own Ford cars to Jo Ann Hendee, who seems to like Ford cars, or maybe their drivers.

I, Duane Hart, bequeath my seat in American History to anyone who wants it.

I, Richard Henderson, bequeath my seven credits from Miss Tapper to anyone who wants to work for them.

I, Faye Howard, bequeath my crush on boys to some freshman girl.

I, Annabelle Kidd, bequeath my seat on the bus to anyone who wants to come to school.

I, Doris Kuehn, bequeath my love of math, to Gail

Conley and my ability to be the only girl in class four times in four years to Nancy Dilts.

I, Verl Malott, bequeath my little black "47" Ford to anybody who can afford to run it.

I, Barbara Marshall, bequeath my natural curly hair to Dorothy Matheny.

I, Dorothy Marvel, bequeath my chair in band to Donnie Reigel who might get there someday.

I, Vernon McCloskey, bequeath nothing to nobody.

I, Don McMullen, bequeath my nickname "Mac" to anyone big enough to fit it.

I, Ruth Murphy, bequeath my ride in a blue "Chevy" every weekend to absolutely no one.

I, Cecil Newburn, bequeath my ability to skip classes to Caroll VonAch.

I, Marilyn Ogden, bequeath my first traffic ticket to Ray Beebe.

I, George Pasley, bequeath my long sideburns to all Elvis Presley fans and my "little gray Kaiser" to any fool that would have it.

I, Gene Rand, bequeath my best pair of boots to Raymond Fidler.

I, Roger Reigel, bequeath my height to Raymond Fidler.

I, Jean Runyan, bequeath my shyness to Beverly Hart.

I, Kenneth Ryan, bequeath a certain junior girl to absolutely no one.

I, Dixie Slater, bequeath my boldness to anyone who can use it.

I, Rita Sleeth, bequeath my ability to get a diamond at the end of my sophomore year to Janice Miller. (I hope she has better luck keeping it.)

I, Jackie Smart, bequeath my Golden Hawk to anyone who thinks they can outrun it.

I, Gloria Sprinkle, bequeath all the boys in St. David but one to any girl who wants them.

I, Marvin Thurman, bequeath my collection of hats to Kenny Williamson.

I, Dixie Weaver, bequeath our Ford for anything better.

I, Gene Weaver, bequeath my black "Chevy" to Tom Reffet so he will have a car to keep all his trinkets in.

I, Kathlain Wilde, bequeath my ability to keep a Clayberg boy to Nancy Philips who isn't doing bad herself.

I, Harold Williamson, bequeath my position as halfback on the football team to Milt Murphy, who will fill it nicely.

I, Joyce Williamson, bequeath my last summers' ride on a black "55" Mainline Ford to anyone but Judy Slaight.

I, Larry Windsor, bequeath my curly hair, my handsome features and my intellectual ability to Jack Beaird.
